

IN THE MICHIGAN COURT OF APPEALS

ORDER

Re: Wanda Marie Inouye v Jeffrey C Lawrence
Docket No. 268010
L.C. No. 05-900262 UN

William C. Whitbeck, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.203(F)(1) and 7.216(A)(10), orders:

The claim of appeal is DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction because the order entered January 10, 2006, is a post-divorce order that does not affect the custody of a minor. MCR 7.202(6)(a)(i), MCR 7.202(6)(a)(iii), and MCR 7.203(A)(1). The Court is aware of the legal maneuvering between this divorced couple regarding child support. However, the Court is not going to put form ahead of substance. The bottom line is that the parties are divorced and are litigating child support. In that situation, there is no appeal of right. As a result, appellant may challenge the order in question by filing a delayed application for leave to appeal under MCR 7.205.
